

RECLAIMING LIFE CAMPAIGN:

The Reclaiming Life Campaign was designed to be a way that authors can be of service to our communities by holding a FUNDRAISING event that would benefit a cause. The Reclaiming Life Campaign specifically addresses the needs of Rape Crisis, Domestic Violence and Suicide Prevention in Teens.

Everyday statistics of rape crimes and domestic violence have become so horrific we have become desensitized to the problem over time. Day after day the media bombards us with news of violent crimes that we have to shut ourselves away from just to be able to adequately function in our everyday lives.

However, there are those out there who have dedicated their lives to helping victims and survivors of Suicide, Rape Crimes and Domestic Violence. Social Workers, Police Officers, Foster Care Givers, Suicide Prevention Hotlines and 911 operators stand by everyday hoping to save a life.

This is our way of trying to assist those everyday heroes. Our way as individuals to give something small back to those who support and encourages our dreams and our books.

We hope to see you at the next RECLAIMING LIFE CAMPAIGN EVENT!

HOW IT WORKS:

The Reclaiming Life Campaign sponsors a semi-formal/formal event that invites authors from around the country to participate in a fundraiser where they donate a portion of their proceeds to the cause that the event is held in honor of. There is usually no specified amount that the author or publisher has to donate. We only ask that you donate a minimum of twenty five dollars ($25) to the charity of honor.

This is an opportunity for authors to give back and this is UWP LLC way of garnering camaraderie among authors and publishers and marrying them with serious and sometimes fatal situations in our communities that needs to be addressed.
