

TOMORROW'S LEADERS TODAY'S CRISIS
Children taking profound positions on today's global concerns

WHO:

Universal Write Publications LLC, an Educational Publisher wish to help schools with basis supplies that might benefit children in need or a teacher who could use more assistance in their class to more effectively teach and enhance their students educational career.

WHAT:

Though the participation in this book is FREE, this is Universal Write Publications LLC way of showing support to our Education Professionals, from principals, teachers, paraprofessionals, administration and staff, who are hard at work everyday, preparing our children for success in State Standardized testing and ultimately to succeed as productive individuals in society. This is no easy task and should thus be rewarded. The 5% donation of net sales can be used in any way by the school recipient and is not restricted in any way by Universal Write Publications LLC. However, it is added as a corporation tax deductible donation in our fiscal earning report.

WHEN:

- Proceeds will be allocated twice a year Spring and Fall, to each school who meet the qualifications requirement.
- Schools who become beneficiaries, may be used in our marketing and promotional products at various times during the year.

WHERE:

Purchase receipts must be sent in to UWP LLC business address:

Universal Write Publications LLC

TOMORROW'S LEADERS TODAY'S CRISIS

sales receipt

PO Box 1432, Valley Stream N.Y. 11582

- Purchase receipts must show date of purchase, child name and school
- Purchase receipts does not have to be original (copies are accepted)

HOW:

It is very easy for your school to qualify.

- Child must submit name of school and principal in submission
- Parents, friends, family, school and staff must purchase books directly through the www.universalwrite.com website in order to the school to qualify for the 5%. UWP cannot give proceeds from sales through Bookstores and other Distribution companies.

WHY:

Because we believe in the children of America, and so do you!