

Book Outline

TOMORROW'S LEADERS TODAY'S CRISIS

Children taking a profound position on today's Global concerns

BOOK

This book is about our Children, tomorrow's leaders telling us in their own words what they believe is the reasons for today's global concerns and how they would propose to solve it.

TITLE

TOMORROW'S LEADERS TODAY'S CRISIS ... Children taking a profound position on today's Global concerns

OUTLINE/OBJECTIVE

- To nurture and guide our children by letting them know that what they feel and think is important to us, and that we are listening and fully aware of everything around us as teachers, mentors, parents and professionals.
- To promote education and literacy by complying with the requirements for state standardized testing, where essays are written in Expository and Narrative format, allowing students to apply knowledge in practical ways, with immediate results.
- To allow our youth to voice their concerns on National and Global issues that currently affect every individual, and will one day affect them.
- To promote and encourage critical thinking skills.
- To offer support to educational professionals who everyday seek means and opportunity to teach and implement to general practice classroom lessons.
- To generate pride, school spirit, patriotism and social development.

GENRE

Children/Education

SYNOPSIS AND BENEFITS

This book will inspire readers of all age, race, religion and educational backgrounds. Their essays will help them to apply knowledge learned in the classroom and build on their test readiness skills, as well as give a hands on and practical way of showing growth, critical thinking skills and social development.

Imagine a child reading this book and believing, "I can." Imagine a teacher beaming realizing that their efforts 'made a difference.' Parents proudly acknowledging the sheer power of words out of the mouths of their babes, showing maturity and merit, just when everyone thought our Educational System was failing. Imagine Principals and school administrators giving their school and students a reprieve, a chance to pat themselves on the back with a job well done. The benefits are unfathomable and infinite.

SUBMISSION QUALIFICATION

This opportunity is FREE.

There is no State or City Funding being applied.

There is no hidden cost for the school/organization or parent.

There is no obligation for school or organization to be involved.

There is ABSOLUTELY nothing to lose!

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT

1. Any student in Elementary to High School between age 10-18years.
2. The submission must be accompanied by a signed notarized permission slip from the parent.
3. The child/student must choose one of the supplied questions and answer using Essay Narrative or Expository Style.
4. Submission must include a head shot (Professional photo), D.O.B, name of school, principal, class teacher, GPA, and future career goals.
5. Information must be submitted via email Rosier@Universalwrite.com (one email must include all requirement), or on a USB/pen drive.
6. Essay must be one 8 ½ x 11 typewritten pages, with four complete paragraphs.
7. The first 50 submissions that meet the submission requirement will be included. All others have met the requirements will be used as needed.
8. Students must use critical thinking skills to show subject content knowledge, creativity and originality.

AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

The book will be available for sale through all major distribution networks and bookstores as well as from the website at www.universalwrite.com. If participating child is being submitted through a school, 5% of total sales (see website for details) will be returned to the school.

Be sure to encourage your students, parents, staff, family and friends to purchase copies in order to support your child's school. Enclosed is an outline of the project TOMORROW'S LEADERS TODAY'S CRISIS. Let's do great things together, where "out of the mouths of babes," we will discover the power of humility and hear the voices of tomorrow lead us TODAY!

PUBLISHER

UNIVERSAL WRITE PUBLICATIONS LLC

PO Box 1432

Valley Stream, New York 11582

800-430-0287 Ext: 9

917-379-0668

www.universalwrite.com

The Literary HOT SPOT!